

Go On Jack Johnson

||: E Bm F#m A :|| 4x

E Bm
In my rear view I watch you
F#m A
watching the twilight behind the telephone lines
E Bm
With nothing to prove, or to assume
F#m A
Just thinking that your thoughts are different than mine

E Bm
In my rear view I watch you
F#m A
And I gave you your life, would you give me mine
E Bm
I see you slowly swim away cause the light is leaving town
F#m A
To a place that I can't be but there's no apologies

C#m E
Just go on Just go on
B
There's still so many things
A
I wanna say to you
C#m E
But go on Just go on
B
We're bound by blood that's moving
A
From the moment that we start
C#m F#m C#m F#m
From the moment that we start

E Bm
I see your perfect little lies Watch the shadows of the clouds
F#m A
And the surface of the ocean out the window of a plane
E Bm
I get nervous when I fly I'm used to walking with my feet
F#m A
Turbulence is like a sigh that I can't help but over think

E
What is the purpose of my life
Bm
If it doesn't ever do
F#m
With learning to let it go
A
Live vicariously through
A
You could do the same
Bm
It's the least you could do
F#m
Cause it's a lonely little chain
A
If you don't add to it

C#m E
So go on Just go on
B
There's still so many things
A
I wanna say to you
C#m E
But go on Just go on
B
We're bound by blood and love
A
From the moment that we start
C#m E
Just go on Just go on
B
There's still so many things
A
I wanna say to you
C#m
Just go on
E
B
We're bound by blood that's moving
A
From the moment that we start
C#m F#m C#m F#m
From the moment that we start
